PRESS NOTE

CBSE Class X and XII exams resumed with 98.2% attendance in North East Delhi

The CBSE Class XII Physics and Applied Physics exam along with Class X Music exam is being conducted peacefully and smoothly at all centers across the country, foreign countries and entire Delhi, including those in north-east part of Delhi today. The examinations have been resumed after postponement of four examinations scheduled earlier in north east part of Delhi. There were 2888 candidates registered for class XII and X examination in north-east part of Delhi. Out of which 2837 candidates are present with 51 absentees. The exam today has thus recorded more than 98.2% attendance in the centers in north eastern parts of Delhi. This has been possible due to the support and cooperation of students, parents, schools, Delhi police and Directorate of Education Delhi. CBSE is committed to conducting safe and smooth board examinations in the coming days as well.
